Emmanuel Vexlard appointed Managing Director of ID Logistics France

Cavaillon, 10 January 2017 - ID Logistics announces the appointment of Emmanuel Vexlard as Managing Director France, effective 1st January 2017.

Emmanuel Vexlard, 43, began his career in 1996 as Assistant Logistics Manager at Habitat. In 1999, he became Distribution Manager for the Taiwanese subsidiary of Geodis. He then returned to France in 2000 to join Solvay as Logistics Buyer Europe. Emmanuel joined ID Logistics at its beginnings, and was successively Head of Operations for the Group's transportation offer, and then Contract Manager, where he set up the initial 4PL control tower business, before becoming Chief Information Officer in 2011.

Emmanuel is a graduate of the Ecole Supérieure des Transports (EST) in Paris and holds a Masters degree in Global Logistics and Supply Chain Management from the Institut Supérieur de Logistique Industrielle (ISLI) in Bordeaux.

In his new position, Emmanuel will be responsible for overseeing strategy, operations and customer relations for the Group's logistics business in France.

"I am pleased to announce the appointment of Emmanuel Vexlard as Managing Director of ID Logistics France. The various positions he has already held in the company make him highly qualified for this new challenge. Emmanuel has an in-depth awareness and understanding of customer needs, combined with excellent managerial skills and the ability to take decisions quickly and effectively", said Christophe Satin, Chief Operating Officer of ID Logistics.
