

Rick Lyu appointed Managing Director of ID Logistics China

Cavaillon, 18 October 2017 – ID Logistics is today announcing the appointment of Rick Lyu as Managing Director of China. He will report to Christophe Satin, the Group’s Chief Operating Officer. This appointment is effective 1st September 2017.

Rick Lyu, 49, possesses over 25 years’ experience in logistics industry in China. He began his career in 1993 when he joined Saima Avandero SPA, a leading Italy based international freight forwarding and logistics company, as China chief representative and Deputy GM of its China joint venture company. Afterwards he chose to study in Fontys University in the Netherlands and was exchanged to University of Plymouth in England, where he finished his MSc programme in international logistics.

Back to China, Rick took on a number of roles firstly with DTW FEDEX in 2001 as Senior General Manager for Engineering, then Business Development Manager China of ABX Logistics in 2002. In 2004, Rick was named Senior planning and engineering Manager at TNT China (rebranded to CEVA Logistics from 2006). In 2013, Rick joined KERRY EAS Logistics as Deputy General Manager East China, responsible for Shanghai branch, managing mainly contract logistics business including transportation, warehousing, and customs formalities.

In his new role with ID Logistics, Rick will oversee the business development of the Group in China, including warehousing operations and continue to diversify the customer portfolio.

Rick Lyu replaces Jean-Marie Guérin who is called upon to assume new responsibilities. We thank Jean-Marie Guérin for his many years spent within the Group.
