ID Logistics completes the acquisition of the activities of Jagged Peak in the United States

Orgon, 12 December 2019 - 08:00 am - ID Logistics (ISIN: FR0010929125, Ticker: IDL) one of the European leaders in contract logistics, announces today the completion of the acquisition of the activities of the American company Jagged Peak.

Founded in 2000 and based in Tampa, Florida, Jagged Peak is a logistics services company specializing in e-commerce, multi-channel and consumer products throughout the United States. In 2018, Jagged Peak achieved a sales revenue of $80 million and has nearly 200 employees.

This acquisition represents an exceptional strategic opportunity for ID Logistics to extend its geographical footprint to the United States and open up new opportunities for organic and external growth.

Eric Hémar, Chairman and CEO of ID Logistics, thanks the ID Logistics teams and his advisors Hogan Lovells in France (Jean-Marc Franceschi) and the United States (Chris Donoho), EY France and US for due diligence, BNP Paribas for financing and Société Générale for US banking operations.

NEXT REPORT

Publication of fourth-quarter 2019 revenues on 27 January 2020 after market close.
