APPOINTMENTS

ID Logistics, a leading contract logistics group in France and internationally, announces several governance changes within its organizations in the Benelux and Canada, aimed at supporting the Group's continued development.

In this context, Marco van Walraven, until now Chief Executive Officer of ID Logistics Benelux, is appointed Chief Executive Officer of ID Logistics Canada.

With more than twenty years of experience in supply chain and contract logistics, Marco joined the ID Logistics Group in 2017. Holding an MBA and a specialized degree in logistics and supply chain, he has played a key role in the development and structuring of the Group's activities in the Benelux region, leveraging operational excellence, economic performance and close customer relationships. In his new role, he will be responsible for contributing to the development of ID Logistics in the recently launched Canadian market and supporting the ramp-up of operations.

Bart Coenen is appointed Chief Executive Officer of ID Logistics Benelux. Already part of the Group, he previously held the position of Managing Director Contract Logistics for the Benelux. Prior to joining ID Logistics, Bart spent many years with the DB Schenker Group, where he held several senior management roles in contract logistics, notably at national and regional levels. He holds a master's degree in engineering and supply chain management and has built a solid career combining the leadership of complex organizations, the structuring of multi-site operations and the development of high value-added solutions. In his new role, he will be responsible for further strengthening ID Logistics' momentum in the Benelux, emphasizing operational performance, customer proximity and strong team engagement. This appointment reflects a strategy of managerial continuity and internal promotion.

These governance changes underscore ID Logistics' commitment to leveraging the expertise of its teams and strengthening organizational coherence in support of its development.
