

Carrefour and ID Logistics open new logistics platform in Brie-Comte-Robert (77) dedicated to Parisian convenience stores

Paris, 5 July 2017 – Carrefour and ID Logistics opened a new logistics platform yesterday dedicated to convenience stores. The 20,000 m² temperature-controlled platform in Brie-Comte-Robert (Seine et Marne, 77) confirms Carrefour's aim to be a leading player in this market. The new platform will deliver daily 461 convenience stores in the Paris region (Carrefour contact, Carrefour city, Carrefour express) with fruit and vegetables, poultry, tide and self-service products.

The Brie-Comte-Robert site is in operation 24 hours a day, six days a week and employs around 200 people.

The new platform forms part of the simplification and modernisation of Carrefour's logistics chain, which aims to supply Carrefour convenience stores in the Paris region, while also reducing transportation costs and limiting its impact on the environment.

In total, this represents around 17 million packages and 95,000 pallets shipped per year.

The building fitted with LED lighting for offices meets all requirements in terms of sustainable construction and environmental performance, and is BREEAM certified. The refrigeration facility uses cutting-edge technology and the building's insulation allows for optimum reduction in energy losses.

Eric Hémar, CEO and Chairman of ID Logistics, comments: "We are delighted to have opened a new platform for our long-standing client Carrefour. Thanks to the expertise of our employees coupled with our flexibility and capacity for innovation, we are able to offer Carrefour dedicated solutions both in France and abroad, aiming to support the transformation of its supply chain."

"The modern new Brie-Comte-Robert site corresponds fully to our operational needs and will become a considerable asset in accompanying the retailer's expansion in the Paris region," states Florence Batchourine, Head of Carrefour Supply Chain.
