Ludovic Bouvier appointed ID Logistics Indonesia Managing Director

Orgon, 9 October 2018 – ID Logistics is announcing the appointment of Ludovic Bouvier as Managing Director of our Indonesia subsidiary. He will report to Christophe Satin, the Group’s Chief Operating Officer. This appointment is effective since August 3, 2018.

Ludovic Bouvier, 44, has over 20 years of experience in management positions in the supply chain sector. He began his career in 1998 at Geodis. In 2002, he joined the ID Logistics Group as operational manager where he managed several ID Logistics activities starting in Asia and Latin America. From 2010 to 2018, he started his own business in retail and e-commerce. In 2018, he joined again the ID Logistics Group as Associate Managing Director of the Indonesian subsidiary.

In his new role, Ludovic will cover all aspects of business development in Indonesia, driving the Group's strategy, operations and customer relations, particularly with Danone and Dairy Farm clients. Those functions were previously performed by Vincent HOLLEY who returned to France to take on new assignments within the Group.
